

Mr. Les Burggraaf

Les graduated from the Marketing Management program in 1980. His coop job training was with the Towne House Family Restaurant in Rock Valley which he purchased one year after graduation. He is also the co-owner of the Towne House Family Restaurant in Orange City.

He has served on the Rock Valley Economic Development Board and the Chamber of Commerce Board. He has been active in the Jaycees and Lions. He is a member of the Calvin Christian Reformed Church, where he has served as deacon and treasurer and he is treasurer of the Christian School.

Les is a charter member of the Iowa Distributive Education Clubs of America Alumni. He served many years on the Marketing Management Advisory Committee; he has served on the General College Advisory Committee, the Food Services Exploratory Committee, the Rock Valley Committee in Support of the NCC 20 ¼ Levy and has been an employer and trainer of NCC Marketing Management students on cooperative job training.