

What's New?

August 2011

Welcome Back!

Fall Library Hours

Monday—Thursday:

7:30am—7pm

Friday:

7:30 am—4:30pm

Closed weekends and holidays

The NCC Library Staff welcomes you back for another event-filled year. Whether you are a new or returning student, staff or faculty member, be sure to stop by the library to familiarize yourself with what we have to offer.

The library offers:

- Computers for research and recreation
- Study space and small conference rooms
- Assistance using online classes, finding sources for assignments and citing sources.
- A variety of online and print sources
- Interlibrary loan
- A fax machine: $.50 per page
- A color printer and a scanner
- A friendly atmosphere to check your e-mail, use the computers or relax in between classes.

Calling All Bookworms!

Thanks to donations from staff and faculty members, we have new (to us) paperback fiction novels. Check below for a sample of fiction books we now have available for checkout. Come to the library to view our other fiction offerings (in paperback and audio).

The Broker

by John Grisham

Alpha Female

by April Cristofferson

The Bourne Sanction

by Robert Ludlum

Stranger in Paradise

by Robert B. Parker

The Last Templar

By Raymond Khoury

***If you have any gently-used paperbacks you are thinking of giving away, the library welcomes and appreciates donations.***
