Irwin to Retire from Northwest Iowa Community College

For the past 23 years, Vicki Irwin has been a mainstay in the hallways of Northwest Iowa Community College. This veteran of the Continuing Education Department will retire at the end of December. She has been employed at the College since August of 1987.

Now a seasoned professional, Irwin got her start at NCC in the Community Relations Department as the Community Relations Secretary/Graphics Technician. In January of 2001 she accepted the position of Secretary in the Continuing Education department. During her tenure at NCC Irwin received the Employee of the Year award in 1997.

Irwin commented, "NCC is a great place to work. Its greatest asset is its staff. Over the years I have been at NCC, many have come and gone, and I have had the opportunity to work with many different people. These associations will be greatly missed. I wasn't looking for a job in Sheldon when I took my first position at NCC and almost 24 years later I feel I may need a little nudge at the back door on my last day."
